AN ACT

Relating to consideration of vetoed bills during special sessions; and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 24.05.100(1) is amended to read:

(1) The governor may call the legislature into special session by issuing a proclamation at least 15 days in advance of the convening date stated in the proclamation. At a special session called by the governor, legislation is limited to the subjects designated by the governor in his proclamation or to the subjects presented by him, and to reconsideration of legislation, if any, vetoed following a regular session of that legislature.

* Sec. 2. AS 24.30.100 is amended to read:

Sec. 24.30.100. ACTION UPON VETO. When the governor vetoes a bill or by veto strikes or reduces an item in an appropriation bill, during a regular session of the legislature, the legislature shall proceed to act in accordance with sec. 16, art. II, of the state constitution as it is implemented by the rules of the legislature. A bill vetoed after adjournment of the first regular session shall be reconsidered by the legislature sitting as one body no later than the fifth day of the next regular or special session convened during that legislature. Bills vetoed after adjournment of the second regular session shall be reconsidered by the legislature sitting as one body no later than the fifth day of a special session of that legislature, if one is called.

* Sec. 3. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act takes effect immediately upon the date of effectiveness of a constitutional amendment substantially the same as that represented by House Joint Resolu-
